

What products do you have on Synaptic Research?

Last Modified on 23/03/2020 3:12 pm GMT

Synaptic Research covers all the life, pension and investment products which can be sold by independent financial advisers in the UK.

The standard data available through the system is as follows, and is subject to frequent change in the light of industry events. See the section below for how this list is organised into a three-tier hierarchy.

N.B. Users only see the data which their firm has paid to have access to, and therefore may not see this full list.
